Somebody defined our town just the other day as "A place where the people talk about you behind your back, and come to wait on you when you're sick."

I've got to admit there's something to it. A lot of our folks are inclined to be pretty outspoken and quick to criticize . . . even ences, whether they apply to hats about little things, like a woman's or beer. That's the way it is in our hat, or a man's preference for a town, anyway, and I hope that it's glass of beer, or the color of Cy the same in yours. Hartman's new barn.

But when anyone's in trouble. those differences and points of criticism are forgotten . . . and folks become neighborly and helpful, like they really are.

From where I sit, criticism never did much harm to anybody, so long as folks don't let it guide their actions . . . so long as they respect our individual prefer-

It will be solely because we desire to keep emocracy alive in Greece until such time s Greece can regain her feet and work out her own destiny, without the dominating pressure of Russian influence.

The problem and its ultimate solution s exceedingly important to American foreign policy, aside from its effect upon the people of Greece. If we decline to intervene in the Greek economic crisis, it will mean that the United States is rapidly reur assistance to Greece, which will require perhaps as much as $250,000,000 of American money, it means that we are definitely committed to a foreign policy of nternationalism.

Because of the seriousness of the Greek ituation, it is a decision that we must nake promptly.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington-Some of the international experts have been trying to figure out the significance of President Truman's mission to Mexico. They wonder whether it means a new spurt in the good-neighbor policy, a new effort to woo Latin friends against Argentina, or what. However, here is the inside story of how the trip originated. Several months ago the new Mexican ambassador, Harvard-trained Antonio Spinosa de Los Monteros, called at the White House to present his credentials. Truman was taken with the

"I have never had a real opportunity to said the new ambassador, "All right, I will," said Truman, who so frequently acts on the spur of the moment. "How about arranging it? I would like to go during early March." Monteros assured Truman there would be no trouble at all, and several weeks later the ambassador returned to the White House to inform the President that he had set up a fancy three-day official visit in the capital of Mexico. Truman was delighted.

And that is the only political significance behind the President's trip.

-HOUSING PROGRAM VANISHES-It has been just about a year since President Truman summoned Wilson Wyatt, ex-mayor of Louisville, to Washington and told him to make "no small plans" for veterans' housing. Wyatt was instructed to push housing as we pushed the war. Instead of foxholes, veterans were promised they would soon have roofs over their heads.

Today, however, it looks as if the last feeble attempt to carry out this promise is

Mr. P. R.-cordial, smiling and full of zest for his job-is the Milwaukee Road's symbol of "public relations" ... an ambassador of good will between all of our employes and all of you.

In stations and roundhouses, in offices and on trains, Mr. P. R. is constantly active. He rubs elbows with ticket and freight agents, waiters and trainmen. And he also keeps in touch with the thousands of other employes, unseen by the public, who do their part to keep'em rolling smoothly.

We of The Milwaukee Road realize that good service wins good friends. We believe firmly in providing the most modern equipment and facilities, but we recognize as of equal importance the human side of railroading.

Hence Mr. P. R., who spreads the spirit of friendliness and personal service throughout and beyond The Milwaukee Road organization. We think you will savor the fruits of his work in your contacts with Milwaukee Road people, either as railroaders or as neighbors.

Cliff Johnson Made Good On Monday

Cliff Johnson, one of the particular stars of the Manistique boxing aggregation did a particuhigh score for the evening, Mrs. O. Monday night's boxing show, but larly outstanding performance at unfortunately, received no credit Cliff was matched against Ro Englund, a very clever boxer from Marquette and had the latter so outfought that he declined to enter the ring when the bell sounded for the third round. He was credited with a technical KO.

12 HOUSES TO BE BUILT HERE

Alfred Brandt, Escanaba Contractor, To Start Work April 1

Alfred Brandt, Escanaba building contractor, announced yesterday that on April 1 he will start former Waves interested in formthe construction of 12 houses in ing a sorority are invited to meet

The five-room cottages, complete with full basement, bath, showers, automatic water heater and other modern conveniences will be located on 14th and 15th streets between 11th and 12th avenues. Nine of the houses will be on 15th street and three on 14th

While all of the houses will be of frame construction, the designs and architectural styling will be varied to present a pleasing appearance, Brandt said.

A building permit for the construction of the houses was approved yesterday by the city Brandt said that he is constructing the houses to sell.

August Ohman, 86, Dies Following Brief Illness

August Ohman, 86, retired carpenter, died at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday morning at his home, 316 South 18th street. His death, caused by disabilities of old age, followed only a brief serious ill-

Mrs. Ohman was born in Pitea, Sweden, Dec. 24, 1860. He was 19 years old when he first came to the United States. After living in Chicago for three years, he moved to Powers and then to Stonington. He had made his home in Escanaba for the past 35

Surviving are a daughter, Hildur, at home, and a step-daughter, Mrs. Earl Pudney, of Detroit. The body will be in state at the Anderson funeral home at two o'clock this afternoon. Services will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the funeral home chapel, Rev. John Anderson of the Evangelical Covenant church conducting the rites, and burial will be in Lakeview cemetery.

Case Dismissed When Witness Juggles Faces

The case against Harry Tilbert, proprietor of Harry's Place at 1323 man, a bartender employed by Tilbert, charged with selling liquor to a minor, was dismisse yesterday in Justice Ranguette's court. The charges were dropped upon a motion for dismissal by Clyde McGonagle, prosecutor, after hearing the testimony.

William Rogers, tending bar at the same address, who had entered a plea of guilty when arraigned on the same charge, was then fined $25 and costs by Justice Ranguette.

The charges against the two men were dropped when the com-plaining witness, Raymond Nault, 19, 609 South Seventeenth street, became tangled in his testimony.

Nault claimed that he had been served five glasses of beer by William Rogers on the afternoon of Feb. 9 and one glass by Tilbert and five by Bingham in the evening around 7 o'clock.

Rogers admitted he had served duced identification which indicated he was over 21 years of age. Tilbert, it was shown however and Bingham did not come on duty until 8:30 p. m., long after the time Nault claimed to have purchased the beer from him.
